How we identify young people with SEND and assess their needs

- Teacher assessment
- Parents discuss concerns with teachers and or SENDCo
- Concerns raised by members of staff to the SENDCo
- Have hearing and vision been checked?
- Analysis of regular assessments of all pupils including meetings to discuss these each term
- Make a referral to an outside agency

How does the school support my child to access the whole curriculum?

- Quality First Teaching
- 'Raising a concern' form is used by teachers where best strategies and approaches are considered to support your child
- Staff liaise with both pupils and parents
- Teaching Assistants in lessons
- Focus groups/Interventions
- Personalised visual timetables

How can you as a parent be involved?

- Attend Parent Evenings
- Share mornings/afternoons
- Book looks
- SEND forums
- Be involved in creating the paperwork to be used by staff e.g. One Page Pupil Profile, support plans
- Keep the SEN department updated with relevant information
- Attend termly review meetings
- Provide support at home to continue the work of school e.g. read together

How can my child be involved?

- • Work with the Teacher and/or SENDCo to complete their Support Plans (where appropriate) for teachers to use when planning
- • Complete a One Page Pupil Profile with teacher
- • TAs will gather feedback regarding support and interventions
- • Involvement in Annual Reviews
- • Have regular access to talk with the SENDCo
- • Pupils will set targets with teachers
- • Talking with pupils about their strengths and their needs.
