

SPRING TERM ROUNDUP

JANUARY

Year 2 and Class 3 started swimming sessions. Instrumental music lessons started again. Football and archery after-school sports clubs started. The choir had two sessions before stopping due to Mrs Cartwright being unwell. A meeting was held for parents of children going to Kingswood.

FEBRUARY

Twenty-eight children from Classes 3 and 4 went on a residential weekend to Kingswood, West Runton. They took part in climbing, zip-wire, Jacob's ladder, fencing, go-karts, archery, problem solving, nightline and crate stack. Environment club started again. Classes 1 and 2 visited Hamerton Zoo. Rev. Sandra took her first assembly of the term.

MARCH

To celebrate World Book Day, the children dressed potatoes as book characters. They also wrote about their favourite book, what happened in it and why they liked it. There was a book sale of new books to raise money for the school. A team of children from Years 4 and 5 took part in a Tag Rugby coaching session followed by a mini-tournament. Year 6 children visited Thomas Clarkson Academy for the Wisbech Schools' Partnership Careers Convention. Rev Sandra visited the school for her final assembly of the term. The school celebrated Science week with a visit from Lion Learners who brought a variety of animals to the school. During the week the children worked in teams across the year groups and carried out a variety of experiments. Musicians from the Grand Union Orchestra played a variety of instruments when they gave a concert for KS1 and KS2. Children from Classes 2, 3 and 4 visited St Ives to take part in the SingFest Cluster Festival. They sang 'After the Storm' in three parts, the only school to sing in parts and also unaccompanied. The PCSOs visited the school and talked to each class. Parents' Evening was held. Tim Mann visited the school to present the artwork the children made as part of the Crowded Room project in the autumn term. There was a non-uniform day which raised over £75 for Sport Relief. Parents were invited to a Reading Café where, after listening to the children sing a song, they joined them in class for reading activities. The morning finished with refreshments including biscuits or cakes that the children had made. The children took part in an Easter Egg hunt, swapping the plastic eggs they found for some bubbles and a mini egg.
