Verbal warning—Stop!

You will receive a verbal warning if you...

- Disturb other children and yourself from learning in class or in assembly.
- Call out, or shout out during lessons.
- Are unkind or rude to other children or members to staff.

Report score: 1

Yellow

You will lose 5 minutes from your playtime

If you continue to make the wrong choices in lessons or in assembly it is serious. It means you are ignoring adults and not doing as you have been told.

Red

Removed from your own class to work in your head of Key Stage's classroom until told to return to your own classroom.

You will lose 10 minutes from your break time.

Your parents will be told by your class teacher.

This happens if you choose to keep on disturbing learning. This also happens straight away if you hurt someone.
