PREVENT

Tackling Extremism and Radicalisation Policy

This policy was adopted in the Summer term 2016 and updated September 2018

INTRODUCTION

St Anne's is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all its pupils. Every member of staff recognises that safeguarding against radicalisation and extremism is no different to safeguarding against any other vulnerability in today's society. The Tackling Extremism and Radicalisation Policy sets out our beliefs, strategies and procedures to protect vulnerable individuals from being radicalised or exposed to extremist views, by identifying who they are and promptly providing them with support.

St Anne's School and Sixth form college is committed to providing a secure environment for all of our pupils and staff and recognises the requirement to have due regard to safeguard pupils from radicalisation and extremism. This policy outlines what radicalisation means and why pupils may be vulnerable to it. Indicators are also provided on what staff and parents should be aware of to identify children who may be vulnerable to radicalisation, while outlining the procedure for passing on any concerns relating to a pupil or a member of staff.

There have been several recent occasions nationally in which extremist groups have attempted to radicalise vulnerable children and young people to hold extreme views including views justifying political, religious, sexist or racist violence, or to steer them into a rigid and narrow ideology that is intolerant of diversity and leaves them vulnerable to future radicalisation.

LINKS TO OTHER POLICIES

St Anne's Tackling Extremism and Radicalisation Policy links to the following School policies;

- Child Protection and Safeguarding
- Equality Policy
- Anti-bullying Policy
- Positive Behaviour Management Policy
- E-Safety Policy

The following national guidelines should also be read when working with this policy;

- PREVENT Strategy HM Government

- Keeping Children Safe in Education DfE 2014
- Working Together to Safeguard Children HM Government 2013
- Statutory guidance issued under section 29 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015.

AIMS

This Policy is intended to provide a framework for dealing with issues relating to vulnerability, radicalisation and exposure to extreme views. We recognise that we are well placed to be able to identify safeguarding issues and this policy clearly sets out how the school will deal with such incidents and identifies how the curriculum and ethos underpins our actions.

The objectives are that:

- All governors, teachers, teaching assistants and non-teaching staff will have an understanding of what radicalisation and extremism are and why we need to be vigilant in school.
- All governors, teachers, teaching assistants and non-teaching staff will know what the school policy is on tackling extremism and radicalisation and will follow the policy guidance swiftly when issues arise.
- All pupils will understand the dangers of radicalisation and exposure to extremist views; building resilience against these and knowing what to do if they experience them.
- All parents/carers and pupils will know that the school has policies in place to keep pupils safe from harm and that the school regularly reviews its systems to ensure they are appropriate and effective.

The main aims of this policy are:

- To ensure that staff are fully engaged in being vigilant about radicalisation
- That they overcome professional disbelief that such issues will not happen here and ensure that we work alongside other professional bodies and agencies to ensure that our pupils are safe from harm.

DEFINITIONS

Radicalisation is defined as the act or process of making a person more radical or favouring of extreme or fundamental changes in political, economic or social conditions, institutions or habits of the mind.

Extremism is defined as vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. Also included in the Prevent duty definition of extremism are calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas.

There are a number of behaviours which may indicate a child is at risk of being radicalised or exposed to extreme views. These include;

- Spending increasing time in the company of other suspected extremists.
- Changing their style of dress or personal appearance to accord with the group.
- Day-to-day behaviour becoming increasingly centred on an extremist ideology, group or cause.
- Loss of interest in other friends and activities not associated with the extremist ideology, group or cause.

- Possession of materials or symbols associated with an extremist cause.
- Attempts to recruit others to the group/cause.
- Communications with others that suggests identification with a group, cause or ideology.
- Using insulting to derogatory names for another group.
- Increase in prejudice-related incidents committed by that person. These may include
  - Physical or verbal assault
  - Provocative behaviour
  - Damage to property or derogatory name calling
  - Possession of prejudice-related materials
  - Prejudice related ridicule or name calling
  - Attempts to recruit to prejudice-related organisations
  - Condoning or supporting violence towards others

PROCEDURES FOR REFERRALS

Although serious incidents involving radicalisation have not occurred at St Anne's School and Sixth Form to date, it is important for us to be constantly vigilant and remain fully informed about the issues which affect the local area, city and society in which we teach. Staff are reminded to suspend any 'professional disbelief' that instances of radicalisation 'could not happen here' and to be 'professionally inquisitive' where concerns arise, referring any concerns through the appropriate safeguarding channels.

We believe that it is possible to intervene to protect people who are vulnerable. Early intervention is vital and staff must be aware of the established processes for front line professionals to refer concerns about individuals and/or groups. We must have the confidence to challenge, the confidence to intervene and ensure that we have strong safeguarding practices based on the most up-to-date guidance and best practise.

Two members of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) and the Pastoral Care Co-ordinator are trained as designated Senior Leaders for Child Protection and Safeguarding and will deal swiftly with any referrals made by staff or with concerns reported by staff.

The Head Teacher and SLT will discuss the most appropriate course of action on a case-by-case basis and will decide when a referral to external agencies is needed

As with any child protection referral, staff must be made aware that if they do not agree with a decision not to refer, they can make the referral themselves and will be given the contact details to do this via the safeguarding board in the staffroom.

GOVERNORS LEADERS AND STAFF

The Head Teacher and all members of the SLT are the leaders for referrals relating to extremism and radicalisation. In the unlikely event that no SLT members and the Head Teacher are not available, all staff know the channels by which to make referrals via the safeguarding board in the staffroom.

Staff will be fully briefed about what to do if they are concerned about the possibility of radicalisation relating to a pupil, or if they need to discuss specific children whom they consider to be vulnerable to radicalisation or extremist views.

The SLT will work in conjunction with the Head Teacher and external agencies to decide the best course of action to address concerns which arise.

CURRICULUM

Our curriculum is "broad and balanced". It promotes respect, tolerance and diversity. Children are encouraged to share their views and recognise that they are entitled to have their own different beliefs which should not be used to influence others.

Our PSHE provision is embedded across the curriculum. It directs our assemblies and underpins the ethos of the school. It is recognised that children with low aspirations are more vulnerable to radicalisation and therefore we strive to equip our pupils with confidence, self-belief, respect and tolerance as well as setting high standards and expectations for themselves.

It is imperative that our pupils and parents view St Anne's School and 6th Form as a safe, respectful learning environment where pupils can discuss and explore issues safely, in an unbiased way which is tolerant of those of a different faith or lifestyle. We are committed to ensuring that our pupils can make a positive contribution to the development of a fair, just and civil society by offering a broad and balanced curriculum, which prepares them for life in modern Britain and which fosters a positive sense of identity through the development of pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development. Through the teaching of both our core values of Communication, Taking Part, Keep on Trying, By Myself, Working with Others, Choosing and British Values in subject areas, assemblies and work within the wider community, the values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs will be promoted to build resilience to extremism.

Children are regularly taught about how to stay safe when using the internet and are encouraged to recognise that people are not always who they say they are online. They are taught to seek adult help if they are upset or concerned about anything they read or see on the internet

STAFF TRAINING

Through INSET opportunities in school, we will ensure that our staff are fully aware of the threats, risks and vulnerabilities that are linked to radicalisation; are aware of the process of radicalisation and how this might be identified early on and are aware of how we can provide support as a school to ensure that our children are resilient and able to resist involvement in radical or extreme activities.

VISITORS AND THE USE OF THE SCHOOL PREMISES

If any member of staff wishes to invite a visitor in the school, they must confirm this with the Headteacher or a member of the SLT. Children are NEVER left unsupervised with external visitors.

Upon arriving at the school, all visitors including contractors, will read the child protection and safeguarding guidance and be made aware of who the DSLs are and how to report any concerns which they may experience.

If any agreement is made to allow non-school groups or organisations to use the premises, appropriate checks will be made before agreeing the contract. Usage will be monitored and in the event of any behaviour not in-keeping with the Tackling Extremism and Radicalisation Policy, the school will contact the police and terminate the contract
