Reminder: Holidays

The council has now informed us that parents will be fined at 5 days holiday. Please do not book your holiday before speaking to school. For holidays that are already booked, please be truthful and tell us where your child is. Please remember that children may lose their place.

We are seeing a number of distressed children who have been taken on a long holiday who have missed transition week and the first few days of school. We ask you to consider all of the above when you book your holidays.

After School Club

We have been approached by Bolton Lads and Girls Club to see if our parents would require an After School Club for their children aged 6-11.

Bolton Lads and Girls Club would collect the children at 3.20pm and would take them by minibus to the Club. Children would be able to stay at the club until their parents collect them when they had finished work up to 5.30pm. The cost would be £1 per day.

If this is something you would be interested in, please complete the slip below and return to the office.

Regards
Mrs V Wallace
