

SUNDON PARK JUNIOR SCHOOL

Behaviour and Discipline Policy

Aims and expectations

It is a primary aim of our school that every member of the school community feels valued and respected, and that each person is treated fairly. We are a caring community, whose values are built on mutual trust and respect for all. The school behaviour policy is therefore designed to support the way in which all members of the school can live and work together in a supportive way. At Sundon Park Junior School we aim to promote an environment where everyone feels ready to learn, respected, happy, safe and secure. Our key aim is to promote good behaviour, rather than merely deter anti-social behaviour. We reward good behaviour and strive to raise self-esteem and pride in the school by developing an ethos of kindness and co-operation. Our key aims in behaviour management are to be ready to learn, respectful of others and keeping safe.

Our Principles

The key principles agreed by our school community, which underpin our behaviour policy at Sundon Park Junior School are:

Be ready to learn
Be respectful
Be safe

This is underpinned through our five pillars of good behaviour

- Consistent, calm adult behaviour
- First attention for best conduct
- Relentless routines
- Scripting difficult interventions
- Restorative follow up

Our Differentiated Approach

Our response to children who have additional needs relating to a disability must take into account the legislation of the Equalities Act 2010. Schools must not discriminate against disabled pupils and consequently may be required to make reasonable adjustments to ensure their educational and social experiences at our school are as positive and inclusive as possible. For children who display inappropriate behaviour for reasons related to a disability, for example Autism or Asperger's Syndrome, we will differentiate our approach in recognition of the additional difficulties these children may have in managing their actions.

It is our responsibility to support and help all our pupils to behave in a socially acceptable manner and we recognise that the methods of achieving this may vary depending on the individual circumstances of the pupil concerned.

We will ensure all adults working with our pupils are made aware of individual needs where behaviour is likely to be an issue.

The SENDCO will offer guidance around a pupil's specific needs about how to effectively manage the behaviour of individual children with difficulties.

Promoting Positive Behaviour

At Sundon Park we use 'Good to be Green'. This is a behaviour management scheme which identifies and rewards good behaviour whilst monitoring and imposing consequences for behaviour which is not showing readiness to learn, being respectful or being safe.

The classroom resources are very visual and child friendly and allow pupils to instantly see how they are behaving in class.

We believe that it is important to promote a positive message regarding behaviour management at all times and we use the "Good to be Green" slogan to promote our high expectations of behaviour.

Class teachers track behaviour and consistently follow our behaviour management procedures.

We record warnings (orange & red cards) on a daily basis, and this is collated by the Inclusion Team on a regular basis, to provide a picture of how pupils are behaving in school. This is recorded on our school system (CPOMs).

We use a four tier intervention behaviour management system in every class:

1. Reminder
2. verbal warning
3. warning (orange card)
4. consequence (red card)

If a child has had a bad day, they can start afresh the following day and begin to work towards their next reward.

A pupil receiving an orange card may be moved back to green once their behaviour is back on track during the lesson.

A pupil who presents persistent challenging behaviour will have targets set through a Behavioural Support Plan.

Recording and responding to Blue Cards (sent to the office/ inclusion area)

Blue Cards (child needs to be removed from class) are initially to be sent to the Inclusion Area. If there is no one there then the Blue Card should go straight to the office. Initially the Inclusion Team will respond to the Blue Card. The aim is to get the child back into class learning as soon as possible. Red cards need to be recorded in the folder (one in the Inclusion area & one in the office).

1. Talk to child and take them back into the classroom – work alongside for a period of time if necessary.
2. Remove child to the Inclusion area, discuss the incident and work with the child. Return child to class as soon as possible.
3. Remove child to the Inclusion area, discuss the incident and work with the child. Child to spend time in isolation.

All of the above should involve discussing the incident with the child, a pupil reflection sheet being completed and a restorative conversation. Contact should also be made with home by the class teacher, unless the consequence is isolation or exclusion – SLT will then decide who will make the phone call home.

Children with severe social and emotional problems which impact on behaviour are supported by the Inclusion Team through a range of interventions.

By rigorous monitoring of the class records, we can identify where and when behaviour deteriorates and if necessary provide additional resources and support.

We recognise that some pupils need additional support to help them manage their behaviour in class. In such cases, prompt cards are given to pupils throughout the lesson to help them regulate their own behaviour. Green cards earn rewards whilst orange cards trigger an agreed consequence. At the end of a lesson the cards are totalled up. A green prompt card can cancel out an orange. This enables pupils to regulate their own behaviour during the lesson.

- Green prompts: "well done", "you are working hard", "you are on task" or "good behaviour"
- Orange prompts "focus", "don't disturb others" and "remember your target".

Rewards

Pupils are able to monitor their own behaviour through the 'Good to be Green' scheme.

They can earn rewards for their good behaviour from the class teacher and SLT.

We acknowledge all the efforts and achievements of children, both in and out of school.

Individual pupils with consistently good behaviour are rewarded by class teacher through:

- Daily house points (if green card has been kept all day)
- Weekly gold coins (if green card has been kept all week)
- Fortnightly text home
- The possibility of a postcard home (two to be sent per class per fortnight)

Children are encouraged to share their accomplishments in whole school assemblies.

Sanctions

Teachers have a statutory authority to discipline pupils whose behaviour is unacceptable, who break the school rules or who fail to follow a reasonable instruction (Section 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006).

In accordance with DfE Guidance 2012, the 1996 Education Act provides members of staff with the power to use reasonable force to prevent pupils committing an offence, injuring themselves or others or damaging property, and to maintain good order and discipline in the classroom.

If a pupil receives 3 orange cards in one week, the class teacher will contact the parents and discuss their child's behaviour and agree actions to monitor and support behaviour. Minutes of the meeting will be recorded and entered on to the school management system (CPOMs) (see appendix C).

If there is no improvement in a child's behaviour, a Behaviour Support Plan will be implemented.

If a pupil receives a red card, the class teacher will contact the parent to invite them in to discuss their child's behaviour. Minutes of the meeting will be recorded on CPOMs.

The child may spend some time during their break or lunch, having a restorative conversation or completing the work that they missed when misbehaving in a lesson.

We follow a restorative approach at Sundon Park Junior School. We do not use detentions instead we have restorative conversations, catch up time or consequence time. The class teacher will inform the parents where restorative conversations or consequence time have taken place. This will be recorded on CPOMs.

If a child's behaviour is violent or endangers the safety of themselves or others, then a member of the SLT will contact the parents and discuss their child's behaviour and agree further action. Minutes of the meeting will be recorded on CPOMs.

All adults are made aware of pupils who have significant issues with behaviour and any support is outlined in their Behaviour Support Plan.

If a pupil makes a malicious accusation against a member of staff then disciplinary action will be taken which may include a fixed-term exclusion as well as a restorative conversation.

Restorative Conversations

An 'restorative' approach will be taken to help to address any poor behaviour, including that which affects the learning of other pupils. Is all about 'restoring' peace and harmony to a situation. Making sure all sides understand WHAT has happened and HOW it can be repaired.

Restorative conversations are based on FOUR R's!:

RESPECT –For everyone by listening to other opinions and learning to value them

RESPONSIBILITY - Taking responsibility for your own actions

REPAIR – repair harm and ensure behaviour is not repeated (Consequence for actions)

RE-INTEGRATION - working through a process that aims to solve the problem and help everyone reach a positive outcome.

All members of staff are expected to follow this restorative conversation approach. For particular children or incidents, it may be appropriate for a member of the Inclusion Team or a senior member of staff to support staff.

Behaviour Support Plans (Appendix E)

A behaviour support plan (BSP) may be used alongside a Personal Learning Plan (PLP) for a child with special educational needs or it may be used independently. A child who is identified as possibly in need of a BSP may require additional support for which an EHA form may need to be submitted or the process of identifying the triggers for unacceptable behaviour may lead to an identification of a special educational need.

The Role of the Class Teacher

We treat all children sensitively with care, respect and understanding. It is the responsibility of the Class Teacher to ensure that be ready, be respectful and be safe are enforced, and that their class behaves in a responsible manner during lesson time.

Every Class Teacher discusses be ready, be respectful and be safe with their class on a regular basis. All conversations around behaviour are framed within the be ready, be respectful, be safe ethos. In this way, every child in the school knows the standard of behaviour that we expect in our school.

We have high expectations of all children in terms of behaviour, and strive to ensure that all pupils work to the best of their ability.

Every class teacher follows the 'Good to be Green' behaviour management scheme in the same way so that there is consistency across the school.

The Class Teacher will liaise regularly with parents to discuss the needs of a child. In addition, they may meet with the SENDCO and liaise with external agencies as necessary to ensure that behavioural issues are dealt with effectively.

All meetings regarding incidents of poor behaviour are recorded on the school management system (CPOMs) to ensure a consistent message is communicated amongst the child, parents and school staff.

If there are incidents of anti-social behaviour, the Class Teacher may discuss these in principle with the whole class.

Any incidents of inappropriate behaviour are handled discreetly with the individual and not in front of the whole class.

The school does not tolerate bullying of any kind. If we discover that an act of bullying or intimidation has taken place, we act immediately to stop any further occurrences of such behaviour. These are dealt with by the BAdmin who will then inform the Head Teacher of any incidents and monitor the children involved over an extended period.

Incidents of anti-social behaviour at lunchtimes are dealt with by the Lunchtime Supervisors, working closely with the BAdmin and senior staff.

Behavioural incidents are recorded on CPOMs and the class teacher or a senior member of staff are made aware on the same day.

Pupils who persistently misbehave or can't cope at lunch time will be required to spend time being supervised a member of the Inclusion Team.

The Role of the Head Teacher

In accordance with Section 89 (1) Education and Inspections Act 2006, the head teacher has set out measures in this behaviour policy which aim to:

- promote good behaviour, self-discipline and respect
- prevent bullying
- ensure that pupils complete assigned work; and
- regulate the conduct of pupils

The Head Teacher supports the staff by

- implementing this policy
- setting the standards of behaviour
- supporting all staff in the implementation of this policy

The Head Teacher keeps records of all reported serious incidents of misbehaviour.

The Head Teacher (or Deputy Head teacher) has the responsibility for giving fixed-term suspensions to individual children for serious acts of misbehaviour. For repeated or very serious acts of anti-social behaviour, the Head Teacher (or Acting Head teacher) may permanently exclude a child. The Head Teacher will then inform the Governing Body.

The role of Parents

The school works collaboratively with parents, so children receive a consistent message.

Expected behaviour is outlined in the school prospectus.

We expect parents to support their child's learning, and to co-operate with the school to achieve the best possible education for their child.

We try to build a supportive dialogue between the home and the school, and we inform parents as soon as possible if we have concerns about their child's welfare or behaviour.

When a child joins the school, a 'Home - School Partnership' form is attached to the admission form. Parents are asked to read this and discuss it with their child. Parents and children are then asked to sign to say that they have read and understood the agreement.

If we have to use reasonable sanctions, we expect parents to support the actions of the school. If parents have any concern about the way that their child has been treated, they should initially contact the class teacher or BSAAdmin. If the concern remains, they should make an appointment to speak with the relevant member of the senior leadership team. By this point most problems are usually resolved. However, if this is not the case parents should contact the Headteacher and then the school Governors in writing via the school office so a formal grievance or appeal process could be implemented.

The Role of Governors

The Governing body has agreed the key principles of this policy. It is the responsibility of the governing body to set down these general guidelines on standards of discipline and behaviour, and of reviewing their effectiveness.

The governing body has a general responsibility for the conduct of the school with a view to promoting high standards of educational achievement (Section 21 of the Education Act 2002)

Under the Education Act 2002 as amended by the Education Act 2011, the governing body reviews certain exclusions and must consider any representations about an exclusion made by the parents of the excluded pupil. These arrangements came into force from 1st September 2012.

The requirements on a governing body to consider exclusion depend upon a number of factors.

Governing bodies will perform the key role of determining whether an excluded pupil should be reinstated. This will involve reviewing the decision of the head teacher and considering the outcome of any independent review panel hearing.

Where parents dispute the decision of a governing body not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil, they can ask for this decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel.

Fixed-term and permanent exclusions

Only the Head Teacher (or the acting Head Teacher) has the power to exclude a pupil from school. The Head Teacher or Deputy Head (in the absence of the Head Teacher) teacher may exclude a pupil for one or more fixed periods, for up to 45 days in any one school year. The Head Teacher (or Acting Head teacher) may also exclude a pupil permanently. It is also possible for the Head Teacher to convert a fixed-term exclusion into a permanent exclusion, if the circumstances warrant this.

If the Head Teacher excludes a pupil, she informs the parents immediately, giving reasons for the exclusion. At the same time, the Head Teacher makes it clear to the parents that they can, if they wish, appeal against the decision to the governing body. The school informs the parents how to make any such appeal.

The Head Teacher informs the LA and the governing body about any permanent exclusion, and about any fixed-term exclusions beyond five days in any one term.

The governing body itself cannot either exclude a pupil or extend the exclusion period made by the Head Teacher.

The Head teacher may exclude (for a fixed period of time or permanently) a child for a number of reasons, including;

- Severe physical assault against a pupil
- Physical assault against an adult
- Verbal abuse /threatening behaviour against a pupil
- Verbal abuse /threatening behaviour against an adult
- Theft
- Damage to the school property
- Persistent disruptive behaviour
- Bullying
- Making a malicious accusation against a member of staff.

Monitoring

The Head Teacher and BSAAdmin monitor the effectiveness of this policy on a regular basis and report to the governing body.

The school records of incidents of misbehaviour in the schools management system (CPOMs). The Class Teacher records minor classroom incidents which are monitored each week by the BSAAdmin. We also record incidents that occur at break and lunch time.

Lunchtime supervisors provide feedback to senior members of staff and/or class teachers about any incidents which occur at lunch time. This may be logged in the school management system (CPOMs).

The Head Teacher keeps a record of any pupil who is suspended for a fixed-term, or who is permanently excluded. This information will be recorded in the schools management system (CPOMs)

The governing body monitor the rate of suspensions and exclusions, and ensure that the school policy is administered fairly and consistently.

Finally, this policy is shared annually with all members of the school community including parents.

Review

The Governing Body reviews this policy annually.

Home School Partnership

We are very pleased that you and your child are members of the Sundon Park Junior School community. We hope to work closely together to ensure your child has a happy and successful time at our school. We also hope to develop effective links between home and school to ensure that your child develops intellectually, socially and emotionally and is able to take full advantage of all that school life has to offer.

We recognise that, as parents, you are closer to your child and understand his/her needs more than we ever will in school. Our experience suggests that there are ways in which you can demonstrate your interest in a valuable and supportive way. We are asking you to enter into a partnership between home and school to strengthen these aims.

As a school we will:

- Provide a safe, caring and disciplined environment.
- Ensure that each child has the opportunity to develop as an individual.
- Provide challenging programmes of teaching, learning and guidance appropriate to the needs of each child.
- Monitor the development of each child and inform parents of their child's progress through written reports, consultation evenings and individual interviews.
- Help children to develop a sense of caring and concern for the welfare of others.
- Provide each child with a home/school contact book.
- Set a regular and appropriate programme of homework.
- Celebrate the success of the children.
- Promote respect for other races, religions, genders and attitudes.
- Provide early warnings about any concerns or problems related to a child's work or behaviour.

As a pupil I will:

- Arrive at school on time.
- Be kind and thoughtful to others by my words and actions.
- Take care of the school's and other people's belongings.
- Always dress smartly in school uniform.
- Move around the school sensibly and quietly.
- Work and play safely both inside and outside.
- Always try to do my best work.
- Listen carefully and follow instructions straight away.
- Work quietly without disturbing others.
- Have the correct equipment for each lesson.

This code of conduct was written by the children and states the behaviour expected at all times at Sundon Park Junior School.

As a family we will:

- Support the school's behaviour policy and code of conduct.
- Ensure our child is correctly dressed and equipped for schoolwork.
- Ensure our child attends school promptly and regularly.
- Ensure our child's home/school contact book is read, signed and returned to school.
- Ensure homework is completed and returned to school at the required time.
- Foster a positive attitude towards school and learning.
- Praise and encourage good work, effort and behaviour.
- Share any problems or concerns that may affect our child's education or behaviour immediately.
- Attend and support activities and events organised by the school and wider community, such as the Friends of Sundon Park Junior School or Governing body.

DfE Guidance: Ensuring Good Behaviour in Schools

A summary for head teachers, governing bodies, teachers, parents and pupils

Introduction

The role of the Government is to give schools the powers they need to provide a safe and structured environment in which teachers can teach and children can learn.

The Government expects:

- all pupils to show respect and courtesy towards teachers and other staff and towards each other;
- parents to encourage their children to show that respect and support the school's authority to discipline its pupils;
- head teachers to help to create that culture of respect by supporting their staff's authority to discipline pupils and ensuring that this happens consistently across the school;
- governing bodies and head teachers to deal with allegations against teachers and other school staff quickly, fairly and consistently in a way that protects the pupil and at the same time supports the person who is the subject of the allegation; and
- that every teacher will be good at managing and improving children's behaviour.

This document summarises the legal powers and duties that govern behaviour and attendance in school and explains how they apply to teachers, governing bodies, pupils and parents.

The behaviour policy

Every school must have a behaviour policy¹. The governing body is responsible for setting general principles that inform the behaviour policy. The governing body must consult the head teacher, school staff, parents and pupils when developing these principles.

Head teachers are responsible for developing the behaviour policy in the context of this framework. They must decide the standard of behaviour expected of pupils at the school and how that standard will be achieved, the school rules, any disciplinary penalties for breaking the rules and rewards for good behaviour. The behaviour policy must include measures to prevent all forms of bullying among pupils. Head teachers must publicise the school behaviour policy, in writing, to staff, parents and pupils at least once a year.

Powers to discipline²

Teachers, teaching assistants and other paid staff with responsibility for pupils have the power to discipline pupils whose behaviour is unacceptable, who break the school rules or who fail to follow a reasonable instruction.

Their power to discipline applies to pupil behaviour in school and outside school, in certain circumstances.

Punishment

Teachers, teaching assistants and other paid staff with responsibility for pupils can impose any reasonable disciplinary penalty in response to poor behaviour. Reasonable penalties can include: confiscation, retention or disposal of a pupil's property; and consequence time. Head teachers can also decide to exclude a pupil for a fixed period (to suspend) or to permanently exclude them.

¹ Section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 for maintained schools and the Independent Schools Standards Regulations 2010 for Academies and Free Schools. What follows is a description of how the law works for maintained schools.

² Applies to all maintained schools, Academies and Free Schools

Searching pupils³

School staff can search pupils with their consent⁴ for any item.

Head teachers and staff authorised by the head teacher have the power to search pupils or their possessions, without consent, where they suspect the pupil has a “prohibited item”. Prohibited items are:

- knives and weapons
- alcohol
- illegal drugs
- stolen items
- tobacco and cigarette papers
- fireworks
- pornographic images
- any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence , cause personal injury or damage to property
- any item banned by the school rules which has been identified in the rules as an item which may be searched for.

Use of reasonable force⁵

All school staff have the power to use reasonable force to prevent pupils committing an offence, injuring themselves or others or damaging property, and to maintain good order and discipline in the classroom.

Head teachers and staff authorised by the head teacher can use such force as is reasonable when searching a pupil without consent for prohibited items except where the search is for an item banned by the school rules.

Allegations of abuse against staff

Allegations of abuse must be taken seriously, but schools should ensure they deal with allegations quickly in a fair and consistent way that provides effective protection for the child and supports the person who is the subject of the allegation. Every effort must be made to maintain confidentiality and guard against unwanted publicity while an allegation is being investigated. Suspension must not be used as an automatic response when an allegation has been reported.

The school’s behaviour policy should set out the disciplinary action that will be taken against pupils who are found to have made malicious accusations against school staff.

Exclusion⁶

The head teacher decides whether to exclude a pupil, for a fixed term or permanently, in line with the school’s behaviour policy, taking into account all the circumstances, the evidence available and the need to balance the interests of the pupil against those of the whole school community.

Parents have the right to make representations to the governing body (or discipline committee) about an exclusion and the governing body must review the exclusion decision in certain

³ Applies to all maintained schools, Academies and Free Schools

⁴ The ability to give consent may be influenced by the child’s age or other factors

⁵ Applies to all maintained schools, Academies and Free Schools

⁶ Applies to maintained schools through s 52 Education Act 2002 and to Academies and Free Schools through their funding agreements circumstances, which include all permanent exclusions⁷. Where a governing body upholds a permanent exclusion parents have the right to appeal the decision to an independent appeal panel.

Schools are under a duty to provide suitable full-time education for an excluded pupil from the sixth school day of any fixed period exclusion of more than five consecutive school days. Local authorities are under a duty to provide suitable full-time education from the sixth school day of a permanent exclusion.

Parents⁸

Schools are required to have, and to ask parents to sign, a Home School Agreement that outlines the responsibilities of the parent and the school; including those around behaviour and attendance.

Parents are under a legal duty to ensure that their child (aged 5-16) receives a suitable full-time education either at a school or by making other suitable arrangements. Where a child is not a registered pupil and other suitable arrangements are not made, the parent may receive a school attendance order from the local authority requiring them to register their child at a school.

For school-registered pupils or those attending Pupil Referral Units (PRUs), parents must ensure that their child attends punctually and regularly. If they do not, the school or local authority may ask them to sign a parenting contract or may issue a penalty sanction of £50 (rising to £100). The local authority may also prosecute a parent who fails to ensure their child's regular school attendance or apply to the courts for an education supervision order in respect of the pupil himself/herself.

Parents have a clear role in making sure their child is well behaved at school. If they do not, the school or local authority may ask them to sign a parenting contract or may apply for a court-imposed parenting order.

Parents must take responsibility for their child, if excluded, and ensure that they are not in a public place without good reason during school hours within the first five school days of any exclusion. If they do not, the school or local authority may issue a penalty sanction of £50 (rising to £100).

Parents must also ensure that their child attends the suitable full time education provided by the school governing body or the local authority from the sixth day of exclusion.

Parents are expected to attend a reintegration interview following any fixed period exclusion from primary school and any fixed period exclusion of more than five days from secondary school. Failure to attend may make it more likely that the court will impose a parenting order if the school or local authority applies for one.

Behaviour Support Plans

The use of a BSP is a four stage process:

Stage 1: Pre-identification stage

The purpose of this stage is to ensure the teacher has a clear notion of the scale of the concern where there is persistent low level disruption. Through monitoring, the BSAdmin may have identified that a pattern of behaviour is not improving as a result of actions taken so far and that a BSA may be necessary. Alternatively, a teacher may be concerned and raise this with the BSAdmin.

The class teacher will use a timetable as a tally chart to identify the scale of the concern over the course of a week and to establish a pattern of when the identified behaviour occurs. This will be reviewed at the end of the week and a decision made as to whether to move on to stage two or whether to continue to monitor behaviour. (See appendix D)

Stage 2: Diagnosis

The purpose of this stage is to diagnose the causes of poor behaviour and to accurately identify the behaviour which is causing concern.

This stage may be triggered by:

- A pupil receiving three orange cards within a week
- A pupil being given a lunchtime consequence time due to fighting, swearing or bullying others
- The evidence gathered from stage 1

The need for this stage may therefore be identified by the SENDA, BSAdmin, class teacher, as a result of a vulnerable children meeting or by the Family Worker.

The following actions will take place:

- All adults who work with the pupil will complete a diagnostic form (see appendix E).
- The BSAdmin will work with the pupil to complete a diagnostic form (see appendix F).
- A letter will be sent to the parent/carer by the BSAdmin inviting them to attend a meeting with the BSAdmin and class teacher containing a diagnostic form (see appendices G and L).
- In the time leading up to the meeting, each time an incident occurs, an incident diagnosis form will be completed by the adult involved (see appendix H) which will be analysed by the BSAdmin (see appendix I). The child will complete a pupil incident diagnosis form with the BSAdmin (see appendix J for an example).
- Prior to the meeting with the parent/carer, the BSAdmin will prepare a summary of the information found so far, including taking into account the views of the parent if their form has been returned to school.

Stage 3: BSP

The purpose of this stage is to ensure the parent/carer and school are working together to improve the behaviour of the pupil.

The following actions will take place:

- A meeting will be held with the parent to agree the content of the BSP (see appendix K)
- Two fortnightly meetings will be held to review progress against the BSP
- The class teacher will follow a programme of behaviour modification to tackle the particular behaviour causing concern.

Meeting 1 to agree BSP with parents/carers:

During the meeting the BSAdmin will take notes. The following agenda will be followed:

- Teacher to briefly outline purpose of meeting
- Teacher to describe positive aspects of the pupil's behaviour at school including:
 - Things the pupils enjoys in school
 - Learning strengths
 - Social strengths
 - Positive progress in attainment
- Parent/carer to describe positive aspects of the pupil's behaviour at home
- Teacher to describe the actions taken so far to diagnose the behaviour
- Parent/carer to ask questions about the process if necessary
- Teacher to outline in detail the behaviour causing concern
- Parent/carer and teacher to agree the content of the BSP
- Teacher describe the next steps including setting a date for the next meeting in two weeks
- BSAdmin to read back notes.

Meetings 2 and 3 review meetings with parents/carers:

A letter will be sent to the parent/carer reminding them of the date of the meeting (see appendix M)

During the meeting the BSAdmin will take notes. The following agenda will be followed:

- Teacher share positives since last meeting
- Parent/carer share positives since last meeting
- Parent/carer share concerns since last meeting
- Teacher share concerns since last meeting
- Teacher to lead a review of progress with BSP
- Agree further actions to be taken by school and parent/carer
- Agree date of next meeting in two weeks
- BSAdmin to read back notes.

Taught behaviour programme:

During this intervention the class teacher will work with the pupil one-to-one in order to bring about a modification in the identified behaviour. The outcomes of each meeting will be recorded (see appendix O).

Step 1 - teacher meets with pupil to identify the unwanted behaviour and to make expectations clear. This is done by:

- The teacher describing the unwanted behaviour to the pupil
- The teacher modelling the unwanted behaviour to the pupil
- The teacher modelling the preferred behaviour to the pupil
- The pupil practising the preferred behaviour
- An agreement about the success criteria for the pupil if they are displaying the preferred behaviour
- A written agreement by the pupil including a clear statement of the expected behaviour and success criteria.
- The results will be recorded on a form (see appendix O) which will be copied to the BSAdmin and parents/carers.

Step 2 - teacher monitors pupil behaviour and meets with pupil to review behaviour. This is done by:

- Teacher acknowledging when pupil is following the success criteria and, in a low key way, acknowledging that the pupil is doing this - it is important that the teacher does not praise the good behaviour but acknowledges the application of the success criteria.
- Teacher reminds the pupil of the success criteria if they are not being followed in order to encourage improved behaviour.

- Teacher meets with pupil weekly for a one-to-one meeting to review progress, to reinforce the success criteria and to set new targets if necessary.
- If new targets are set then these should be recorded on the form (see appendix O) and copied to the BSAdmin and parents/carers.

Stage 4: Continued monitoring or actions

The purpose of this stage is to seek support from outside agencies where concerning behaviour is still in evidence or to agree further actions to be taken in school including monitoring where behaviour has improved.

The following actions will take place:

- Continuing to use the incident diagnosis form as necessary
- Progress will be reviewed by the BSAdmin and teacher to agree likely next steps. This may include:
 - Monitoring where behaviour has improved to an acceptable level
 - An two week extension to the BSP period if behaviour has improved but is not yet at the level expected
 - A new BSP to tackle different aspects of the pupil's behaviour
 - Seeking support from external agencies.
- A final review meeting will be held to decide on future actions.

Meeting 4 final review meeting with parents/carers

A letter will be sent to the parent/carer reminding them of the date of the meeting (see appendix N)

During the meeting the BSAdmin will take notes. The following agenda will be followed:

- Teacher share positives since last meeting
