World's biggest coffee morning for Macmillan cancer support

Friday 28th September

9.00 – 10.00 in the wooden hall (next to KS2 playground)

Dear parents and carers,

You will probably be aware that, despite great strides forward in cancer research, many individuals and families in Britain are still affected by cancer.

Macmillan nurses are trained in cancer and palliative care, often having special knowledge of pain and symptom management and psychological support. Most Macmillan nurses work in NHS hospitals or in the community, where they give advice and support to people with cancer. They help individuals and families understand their treatment options and how to access all levels of help and support.

As a school, and in the knowledge that some of our families are affected by cancer, we have decided to support the work of Macmillan nurses by fundraising through joining in the nationwide coffee morning.

This quote comes from the Macmillan cancer support website:

"We understand how cancer can affect people's whole lives – health, money, family, job; everything. And, after more than 100 years of caring, we understand that the most important thing is to treat people as individuals, not patients.

So we take the time to understand the support people need to live their lives as fully as they can. From the moment of diagnosis and whenever we're most needed, we're here to help people find their best way through. Our help is totally focused on each individual person, so everyone receives the support that's best for them."

Our coffee morning will be on Friday 28th September at 9.00am in the wooden hall (nearest the KS2 playground) so please come and join us! Please bring a cake to share, if you can, have a cup of coffee after dropping your children at school, and enjoy a chat with other Fairholme parents and carers. There will be fundraising buckets in the hall, and outside, for your cash contributions to this very worthwhile cause.

Please come and support the coffee morning and Macmillan Nurses – it would be lovely to see lots of you there.

Yours sincerely

Rachel Holland
