

Become a School Governor

School governors are volunteers who work together with the headteacher to improve education and other outcomes for all pupils.

You could become a school governor if you are aged 18 or over and:

- Want to make a positive difference to the education of local children
- Can get on with other people and work as part of a team
- Have some time to attend meetings and to read necessary papers
- Are ready to learn and open to new ideas
- Are willing to put something into your local community

You don't need any formal qualifications, you'll get full training and support to make sure you are fully equipped to carry out the role successfully.
