Values

The value we will be focusing on for the next fortnight is Motivation. Please use the information below, at home, to discuss and share with your child.

Definition

- Motivation is to set myself challenging goals and aspirations
- Motivation is to never give up – be determined!
- Motivation is to have confidence in myself
- Motivation is to be responsible for my own learning and behaviour.

Related words or phrases

Goals Aspiration
Determined Confidence
Responsible

What does motivation look like?

Persisting
Being disciplined
Overcoming failure
Picking yourself up when things when get hard
Just getting on and doing it!

Remember motivation is...

Never giving up
Having confidence in yourself
Just getting on and doing it!

Motivation

set new goals, focus on your dream, stay positive, generate new ideas, (Are you really motivated?)

Success is an iceberg. WHAT PEOPLE SEE: SUCCESS! WHAT PEOPLE DON'T SEE: Persistence, Failure, Sacrifice, Dedication, Hard work, Discipline.

Local Visit Forms

You child will be bringing home a Local Visits Form to be completed for this school year. This is so we can take them to the library and other trips based in Helmsley. If a trip involves transport additional permission will be required and specific request letters will be sent home as and when needed.

Please return the completed form by Wednesday 3rd October.
