we are aspire Hempstalls Get Together with the Local Community

Well done to our School Councillors for taking time today to assist in our Local Community, with other important members of our area. They were joined by a Police Officer, Environmentalist from the Council and Community Workers from Aspire Housing. During the day, they have done a litter pick, followed by planting with residents from Kimberley Grange Care Home and a lovely lunch. Well done Team Hempstalls!

Well Done!

Class of the Week – Reception

Our Reception classes our Class of the Week for their wonderful Superhero Launch Day!

We now have a school Facebook page-please Like and Follow Us for regular updates about our school day. We aim for this to be a positive page!

To find us, you will need to look under 'Pages'. There is a Hempstalls Primary Profile, however we will not be using the profile to make updates as we cannot accept Friend Requests, therefore we ask that you ignore the Hempstalls Primary Profile.

Harvest Festival

Please start bringing your donations to school. We will be donating all goods to the Alice Pantry.

- Cubs & Nursery-Baby Products
- KS1- Toiletries
- KS2-Non-perishable food items

GOLDEN TICKET

Could you find a Golden Ticket on Thursday 4th October?

All children have the chance to win a Golden Ticket on Thursday 4th October as it is our Census Day!

There will be 30 tickets stuck to hot dinner trays; we would like as many children as possible to have a school lunch on this day. In return, the school will receive a substantial amount of extra funding, which allows us to pay for more equipment, better resources etc. which all goes towards benefitting your children.

- Pizza, Chicken Burger or Hot Dog
- Chips
- Beans or Sweetcorn
- Chocolate Cookie
