

Headteacher's Message

I am still trying to recover from the sugar rush caused by too many amazing cakes at the Macmillan World's Biggest Coffee Morning. This annual event has become a tradition at Adel St John. Raising money for Macmillan Cancer Support; it is a cause close to many people's hearts, including my own. Thank you to all those who generously donated buns, cakes and tasty treats, which along with a drink, was enjoyed by all the children. The atmosphere of the parents' coffee morning was so welcoming and it was lovely to see new faces. I would also like to thank the PTA who continually give up their time to organise these events so successfully. Before the summer a parent asked for donations of spectacles to be made to school. We have now been informed that the glasses were put to good use and issued to children and adults in Gambia. For some people this was their first time to undergo an eye test and wear glasses. We have been asked to pass on thanks to everyone who donated.

Along with Mrs Fountain, Miss Kane and Mr Gleeson, I will be joining the children at Carlton Lodge next week – this will be my first Year 6 residential and I'm switching between excitement and nervousness as Monday comes closer. I am sure our Year 6 children will also have an excited sleepless weekend before their residential. It will be an experience that will stay with them for years to come! There will be a daily update on the Year 6 children at Carlton Lodge on the school website.

As I will be away next week, there will be no newsletter.

Meeting the minibeasts

This week, as part of their topic 'Wriggle and Crawl', Year 2 undertook an epic journey on foot to Adel Moor. There they met park ranger David who showed them the best places to find minibeasts and was kind enough to lend them hunting equipment such as pooters, containers, identification tables and picture guides.

The children were eagle eyed hunters and found slugs, spiders, frog hoppers, woodlice, grasshoppers, beetles and no shortage of wasps. A fantastic start to our new topic!

Weekly prayer

Dear God Help us to remember the importance of loving our neighbour.
Thank you for those we can call our friends and the joy and happiness that loving them and them
loving us in return,
can bring.
Lord, hear our prayer
Amen.
