

English

Class books: Flotsam and Room 13

Story writing, particularly using a range of sentence structures.

Newspaper reports: direct and reported speech; active and passive voice.

Letter writing: developing the appropriate level of formality through vocabulary selections.

Maths

Place value: working with larger numbers up to 10 million; rounding numbers; positive and negative numbers.

Mental and formal written methods for all 4 number operations.

Solving problems in real-life contexts that involve all of the above.

Science

Living things and their habitats:

Classification of living things; adaptations to suit habitat;

RE

Creation

Religion and science: conflicting or complementary?

Art

Creating a variety of images and sculptures inspired by patterns found under the sea.

Painting, sketching, clay modelling.

Autumn 1: Magical Mystery Tour

Geography

Identifying and exploring the different biomes that can be found in North and South America.

How do they impact on human activity? How does human activity impact on these environments?

Computing

Creating film trailers for each of the two class books, Flotsam and Room 13

French

Hobbies and pastimes
Likes and dislikes

Music

Music from around the world.

Exploring and creating musical compositions linked to journeys.

PSHE

Keeping safe and managing risks: Understanding what are the dangers that we might encounter in a variety of situations and how we can keep ourselves safe.

PE

- Athletics: a variety of track and field events.
- Dance: Street dance (with dance coach)