

Parent Toolkit

Free autism training from The Autism Group

Girls on the spectrum – missed and misunderstood

A look at how autism affects girls and young women, why it can be difficult to diagnose and how best to support the unique pattern of behaviours of females on the spectrum.

Suitable for parents and carers of girls of primary or secondary school age.

WHEN?

Wednesday November 14th 2018
6.30pm to 8.30pm

WHERE?

Burnham Park Hall
Windsor Lane
Burnham SL1 7HR

- † Suitable for anyone living or caring for someone with autism, whether newly diagnosed, facing new life stage challenges or simply wanting to refresh their knowledge and understanding.
- † A 2 hour session packed with information and ideas to better equip carers in responding to the needs of those on the spectrum.
- † Friendly, interactive style delivered by qualified autism trainers who can also share their own experience as parents of people on the spectrum.

To book a place contact
Tricia Kempton at tricia@theautismgroup.org.uk
Call or text 07423 636339
www.theautismgroup.org.uk
facebook.com/theautismgroup

Parents say...

"Trainers so knowledgeable and friendly - thank you"

"An amazing service"

"Help at last - thank you!"

Charity registration 1166787

PLEASE BOOK IN ADVANCE AS PLACES ARE LIMITED!