Why we collect and use this information

Packington CE Primary School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families. We may also receive pupil information from their previous school, the LA and/or the DFE. This is collected and used for the following reasons:

- a) To support pupil learning
- b) To safeguard pupils
- c) To monitor and report on pupil progress
- d) To provide appropriate pastoral care
- e) To assess the quality of our services
- f) To comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We must make sure that information we collect and use about pupils is in line with the GDPR and Data Protection Act. This means that we must have a lawful reason to collect the data and that if we share it with another organisation or individual we must have a legal basis to do so.

The lawful basis for schools to collect information comes from a variety of sources including:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- The Education (School Performance Information) (England) Regulations 2007
- Regulation 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils ) (England) Regulations 2013

Under the GDPR, processing of the data held is lawful if one or more of a number of lawful bases applies. The bases which we rely on for processing pupil information, which is collected and used for the reasons listed above, are as follows:

- Consent: parents have given clear consent for us to process their (and their child's) personal data for the purpose indicated above.
- For the purposes of a), c), d) and e) in accordance with the legal basis of Public Task: collecting the data is necessary to perform tasks that schools are required to perform as part of their statutory function.

- For the purposes of b) in accordance with the legal basis of Vital Interests: to keep children safe (food allergies, or medical conditions) i.e. if we are required to share medical history information with the emergency services in the event of an accident or to other agencies when a child may be in danger
- For the purposes of f) in accordance with the legal basis of Legal Obligation: data collected for DfE census information which we are required by law to submit.

In addition, concerning any special category data e.g. data relating to ethnic origin, data concerning health, one or more of the following conditions applies:

- Conditions a, b, c and d of GDPR - Article 9

Collecting pupil information

We obtain pupil information using ParentLite. This is a secure App for which parents are sent a log in and password to enable them to input data relating to their child e.g. contact, medical, ethnicity details e.t.c. In addition, when a child joins us from another school, we are sent a secure file containing relevant information.

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

All confidential information is kept secure either on encrypted, password protected devices or paper copies kept on the school site. Once the deadline for retaining information has passed, data stored electronically is deleted and paper copies destroyed.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- Our local authority
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Children's Social Care (when safeguarding pupil's welfare)
- External professionals who visit school (e.g. educational psychologist)
- Supplier and service providers with whom we have a contract e.g. Eduspot (text and email service), LEAMIS (SIMS/Pupil Database provider)

- Voluntary Organisations linked to the school e.g. The PSA
- Professional School Portraits (PSP school photos)

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the DfE under section 3 of The Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data Collection Requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether the DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

Requesting access to your personal data and your rights

Under data protection legislation, parents and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact the Headteacher

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at
