

English

- Children will read and explore the fictional text 'Flat Stanley'- writing their own version of a 'Flat Stanley' story.
- They will practise writing letters as part of this work.
- They will use non-fiction persuasive writing to write a Carden School leaflet.
- They will write instructions on how to make a healthy snack.
- They will read and write Autumn poems as part of National poetry week.

Computing

- Children will use publisher to present poems, adding images.
- They will use the iPads to create a talking book linked to their persuasive leaflet.

Maths

- Children will develop their understanding of all four of the number operations. They will reinforce their knowledge of 2D and 3D shapes, time and practise collecting and interpreting data, linked to finding out about ourselves.

RE

- Children will learn about a range of religions and discuss and explore celebrations, including Christmas.

PSHCE

- See your child's year group topic web.

The Big Picture KS2 SLC Autumn Term 2018 'All About Me!'

Humanities

- See your child's year group topic web.
- In addition, they will explore maps and places through our English 'Flat Stanley' work.

Art / DT

- Children will investigate the work of Andy Warhol, using photographs to create portraits. They will also look at figures and create 3D sculptures of people. They will also design and make photo frames.
- They will prepare and cook healthy snacks. linked to Science.

Science

- Children will reinforce their learning about humans; the senses, different parts of the human body and the importance of exercise and a healthy diet.
- They will learn about the simple function and basic parts of the digestive system and circulatory system including the heart.

Music

- Children will learn about different styles of music and use rhythm and pitch to sing a variety of songs, adding percussion instruments to their compositions.

Physical Education

- See your child's year group topic web.

