

Homework
W/E Friday 12th October

YEAR 3

Spellings

This weeks spellings are below. Please complete the LOOK SAY COVER WRITE sheet to help you practise these. The spellings will be tested in class next Friday.

Reading

Reading every night will really benefit the children. Please fill in the yellow reading records, hand them in every morning and change your book when you have finished. ALSO - children have been allocated books for this half term on 'Bug Club' - please can these all be read this half term.

Sum Dog

Children have had their Sum Dog accounts stuck into their reading records. This is a fabulous maths resource and the children who access it will benefit greatly. Please log on as much as you can.

English

We are currently doing an English unit on 'persuasive letters'. Please have a go at the sheet which looks at persuasive language.

Language to persuade

- Read this page from a holiday brochure. Underline the words which try to persuade you.
- Read the questions surrounding the text.
- What information does the brochure NOT give you? Why do you think this might be?

Is it miles away from the village?

How many rooms are there?

The holiday of your dreams

This fabulous, luxury, friendly, family hotel has its own beachfront at the quieter end of the bay. It is only a tiny walk from the golden sands and a short hop from the colourful, unspoilt village. The wonderful views are what make this hotel such a glorious, relaxing place in which to stay.

Some rooms have spacious balconies, and most of these enjoy stunning sea views. All the rooms are simply but tastefully furnished.

Freda and Max, the owners, create a warm, friendly environment in which guests can relax in comfort.

Does it have a pool?

How many rooms have a sea view?

Does the hotel have a restaurant?

- Underline in red all the adjectives used. Write them in a chart like this one.

Adjectives which give a good feeling	Adjectives which give a bad feeling

- Underline in blue all the facts you are given. How many are there? _____

- Change some of the positive adjectives to their opposites. What happens?
- Re-write the description to show the hotel as an unpleasant place.
