Dear all,

It has been a busy, exciting term full of fun and learning. Thank you to families for all their support and we wish you a restful and recuperative half term.

What great activities around the school this week! Peahen Publishing visited Year 6 and Year 3 to use Science and Eco-superheroes to inspire writing, Year 6 held a Family Assembly on 'Lifeskills', Year 2 performed The Gruffalo at their family assembly, school had successful parents evenings, and huge thanks to our amazing PTFA for organising the Halloween Disco, and providing us with great support for 'Eco' Muffin day. The PTFA Halloween disco raised £488.30. Thank you all for your support.

Also, well done to Kaitlyn and Chloe, winners of our two trophies for 'Being kind, trying hard and doing your best!'
