This Week

Inkpen and Rosen have been colour mixing with powder paints to help develop their gross and fine motor skills.

Sharratt and Donaldson would like to say a big thank you to all the parents who have helped with the fantastic homework that the children have done as part of their Moon Zoom topic.

Potter and Ahlberg had a party in English to help them get in the mood for some diary writing about their wonderful event. They have been looking at changing states by making jelly.

Murphy and Dahl had a fantastic afternoon showing off all the work they have done this half term to their parents. They also managed to make £72.69 from selling their poetry books and buns. All of this will go to supporting their activities in their next topic.

In science this week Morpurgo and Kinney have been looking at solids, liquids and gases so they can understand and describe the water cycle.

Herge and Walliams finished their space topic with an Eggonaut challenge! They had to use their science and technology skills to think about protecting an egg as it re-entered earth's orbit! Unfortunately, I think many eggs were damaged in the process!!!

Shakespeare and Rowling have really got to grips with long division this week and are really doing well. They have been exploring life in World War II by seeing what the artefacts in a suitcase tell them about the person who owned it.

Have a great weekend.

The Hive Out of School Club

This week we have experimented with different ways of building structures using pasta and marshmallows, continued with our origami project and can now make turtles and foxes. In French club we looked at how Hallowe'en is celebrated in France.

We have also had some fantastic games of chess and enjoyed playing with new games such as 'Square Up' and 'Boggle'.

We are all looking forward to our first holiday club which runs next week. There are still places available if you fancy a day without the children.

It is educational and fun in a safe environment. To make a last minute booking email thehiveanlaby@gmail.com

Well we hope you had a spooktacular time at the Hallowe'en disco – we sure did!

Not only did we have a fantastic disco we also had a rather scary class assembly.

Miss Davies and the children in team Shakespeare put a lot of work in to their song – 'Thriller'. The wonderfully choreographed dancing added to the scary atmosphere.

We hope you were all paying attention to the safety tips that team Shakespeare gave as we want everybody to have a brilliant but safe Hallowee'en and Bonfire Night.

It has been a really long but productive half term and we look forward to all the exciting educational opportunities that next half term will bring.

Olivia, Ana, Annelise and Katie.

Key Stage 1 Maths Monkeys!

Our Key Stage 1 monkeys are Milo, Marvin, Monty and Maurice and they would really love to be taken home so somebody can do some maths with them!

They come with lots of maths equipment for the children to explore including cards, dice base 10, tape measure and a Snakes and Ladders game.

Be as creative as you can to use the equipment to carry out some maths! Why not write it in the journal and send it back to school or tweet it to our Twitter account so everybody can see.

It would be wonderful to share all the ideas on our website and Twitter to give others ideas and inspire all the children to enjoy maths.

What better way to really engage our children and support their maths learning?
