Heidi

Dancer

Becoming a dancer has been my dream as Darcey Bussell has inspired me and been my hero since I was three.

To become a professional dancer you need to be graceful and it is a lot of hard work as very few people can become dancers. You should also be flexible be able to jump high and make it look effortless at the same time. You should train from an early age, consider a bachelor's degree programme and also work after retirement

Being a dancer means you should be committed and be willing to push yourself to an extreme standard. And possibly give up part of your life to dedicate yourself to dance.

Davy

Police Officer

I would like to be a police officer when I am older as it has always interested me and i always would do everything i can to make the country safer and a better place.if i was to become a police officer i would make sure that i'd do the best that I can.
