Dear Parent/Carer,

Online Safety event for parents, carers and grandparents

As previously advertised in the newsletter, we are fortunate to be able to offer parents a workshop in school with Simon Aston, the County Lead for Online Safety Education. This will be on Tuesday 20th November 6.15-7.15pm. Simon presents his knowledge and advice in an engaging way and is always well received by parents and staff alike, helping to bring us up to date with current trends amongst children and young people, and giving sound advice as to how best to keep our children safe online.

I cannot stress enough the importance of at least one adult from each family attending this one hour workshop. Whatever level of understanding and experience you have of the various apps and games children are accessing, you will very likely still learn something new, relevant and important. I have provided an opportunity below for you to briefly outline any particular areas you would like Simon to cover if possible, or any specific questions. There will be opportunity during the evening to ask him in person if you prefer.

Your attendance at this event is so important to us that teachers have volunteered to run a crèche for the hour of the workshop for any primary school-age children. Please indicate below if this is something you would like to make use of.

Members of our wonderful PTA will serve refreshments (a free glass of wine or beer!) at this event to encourage you to come along.

Please don't bury your head in the sand, come along and make sure you are up to date and have the knowledge to best support your child in the fast moving online world.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Sue Marsh
