

A large field of red poppies stretches towards a horizon under a soft, hazy sunset sky. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The foreground features a large, detailed red poppy flower with a dark center and yellow stamens. The overall mood is peaceful and nostalgic.

Remembrance Poems

Remembrance

by Lottie and Carla

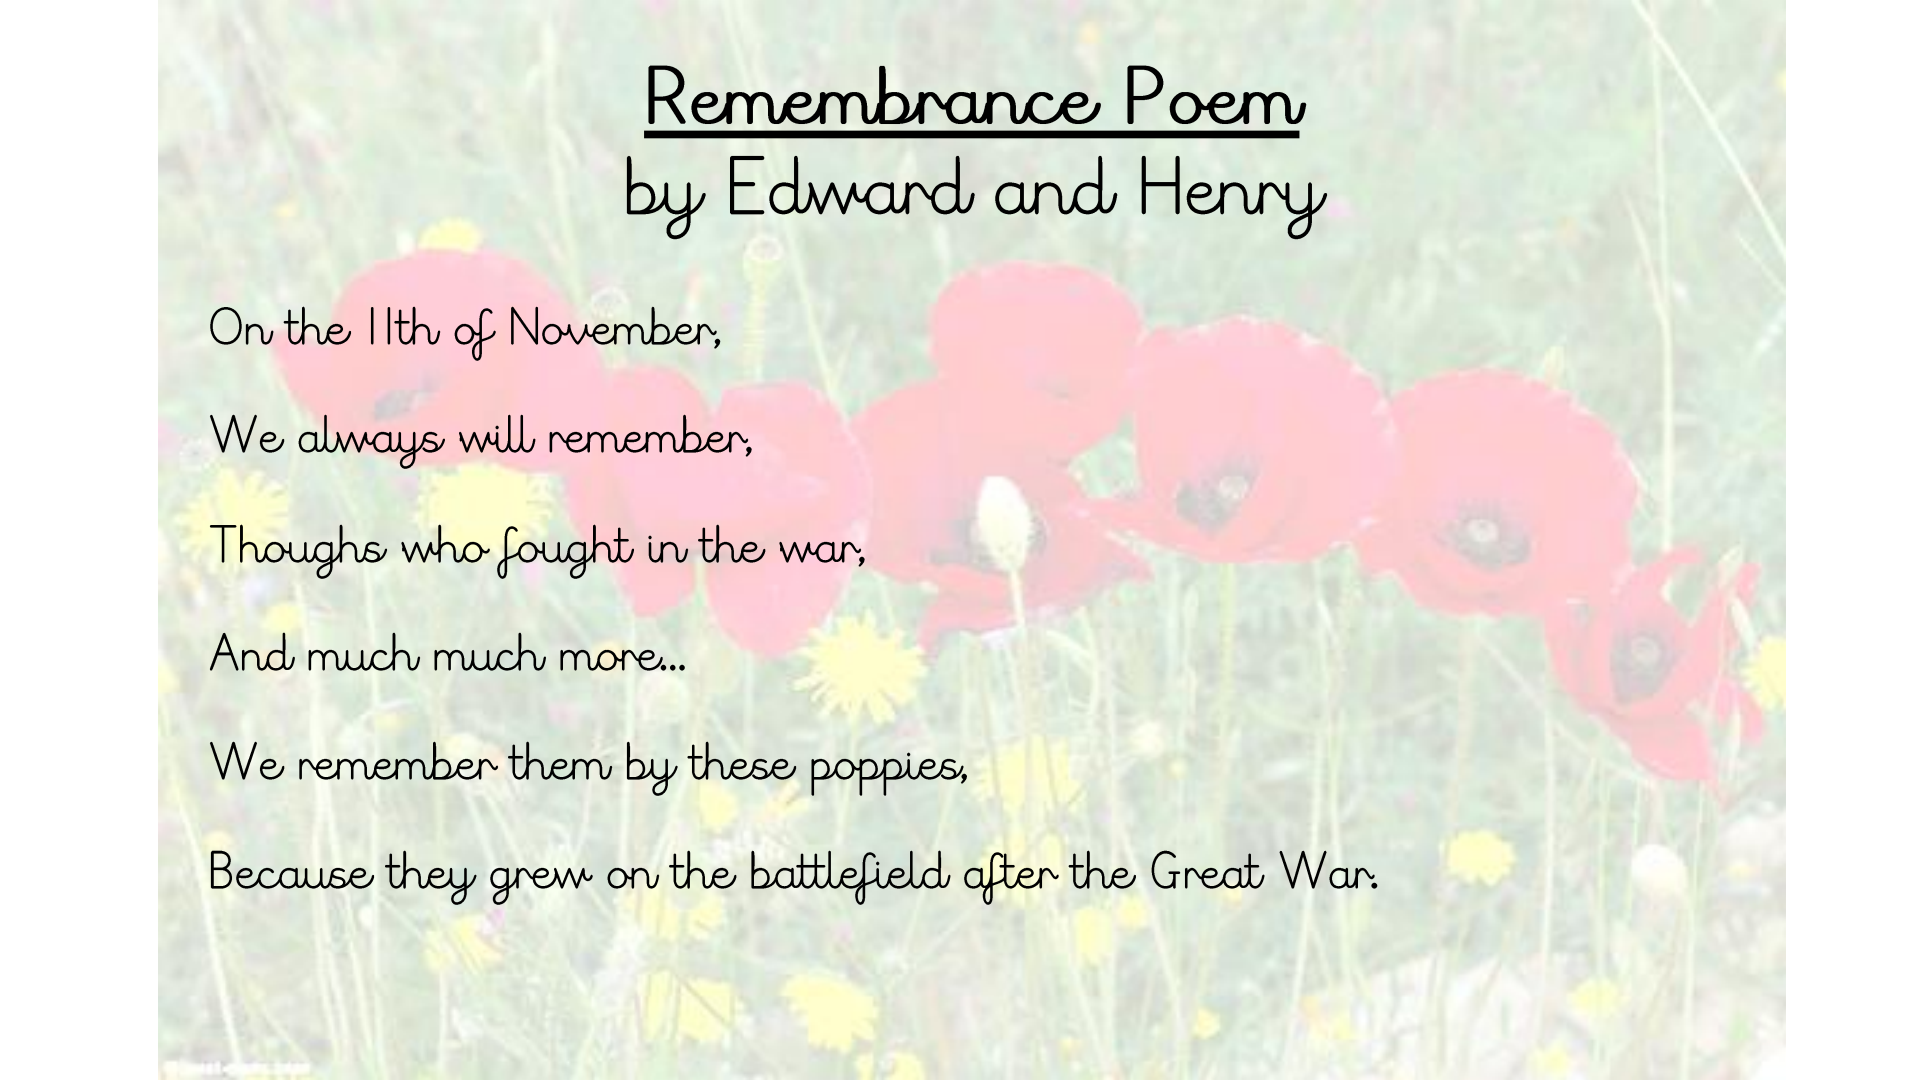

Very bravely Soldiers fought for our country,

Every 11th November at 11am,

We fall silent to pay our respect to their sacrifice,

We have remembrance day to thank our army,

Poppies we wear to remember, the soldiers who risked their lives.

A field of red poppies and yellow daisies. The poppies are in the foreground, and the daisies are scattered throughout the field. The background is a soft-focus green field.

Remembrance Poem by Edward and Henry

On the 11th of November,

We always will remember,

Thoughts who fought in the war,

And much much more...

We remember them by these poppies,

Because they grew on the battlefield after the Great War.

REMEMBRANCE POEM

GEORGE AND OSCAR

Soldiers did you pray,

Because we will remember you on remembrance day.

On 11th november,

We will remember

Those who lost their souls

And who fought in the war

Some played for Leicester

And some worked in shops

But it doesn't matter,

Who had the best jobs,

But we will always remember,

Those who fought in the war.

REMEMBRANCE POEM

BY HEIDI AND AISHA

ON THE 11TH OF NOVEMBER,

THOSE WE WILL REMEMBER ,

WHO FOUGHT FOR US IN THE WAR,

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM LOADS MORE,

THEY SACRIFICED THEIR LIVES,

FOR THEIR CHILDREN AND WIVES,

POPPYS WE WEAR,

SHOW HOW MUCH WE CARE,

WE

WILL

REMEMBER

THEM

Remembrance

Rocco and Leon

Remember all of the soldiers that sacrificed their lives to save our country.

Even though they have gone we still remember them.

My or your ancestors have been in the war to help our country.

Event though they have passed away will still respect all of them.

Might be gone but they are still remembered.

Be respectful that they saved are lives.

Everyone should be respectful.

Respect all of the people that was in the war.

Remembrance Day

by Alice and Luke

Poppies are the colour of blood,
the blood of the soldiers in the war the wars that killed them all.

Why that was just an act of greed,
for money and power those days are still,
but now only to hope that those days are gone!

The poppies were the first flowers to grow in the middle of the battlefield.

And heal the black that was death.

We will remember them!

Poppies

by Isabelle and Caitlin

Poppies are red like blood for the soldiers we lost in the war.

We remember all the soldiers, the rich and the poor.

On the 11th of November, all the people we remember that died in a fight, are here in the night .

Their souls are always with you.

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM.

LEST WE FORGET!

Poppies

by Luca and Sam

Poppies are a way of remembering those people who fought in the war.

They sacrificed their lives and fought for our country.

If they didn't fight in the war, England wouldn't be the same,

They fought for their families and everyone else .

So everyone could have a lovely country, England.