Anti-Bullying Week Monday 12th – Friday 16th November

Dear Parents/Carers,

Anti-Bullying Week 2018 is happening from Monday 12th to Friday 16th November and has the theme 'Choose Respect'.

The aim of this week is to empower children and young people to celebrate what makes them and others unique.

We hope to help children and young people to understand how important it is that every child feels valued and included in school, able to be themselves, without fear of bullying, to encourage parents and carers to work with their school and talk to their children about bullying, difference and equality.

Therefore we invite children to wear odd socks to school for the day with their school uniform on Monday 12th November.

Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It's an opportunity for children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique!

Check this link out for a fantastic toe tapping song, it's called 'Choose Respect' and it encompasses why we do Odd Socks Day - <https://youtu.be/Of5CxXz662Y>

We look forward to seeing all the odd socks on Monday to help us remember that we are 'All Different, All Equal'.

Please note that there is no donation necessary.

Thank you for your support.
