Friday 16th November 2018

Academy Photography will be in school on Friday 16th November for individual photographs and family photographs. There is an opportunity for you to bring younger siblings that DO NOT attend Hempstalls, for a photograph. Please arrive between 8-8:45am. A slip has been sent home separately for you to sign and return,

Please do NOT arrive at 8am to have a sibling photograph taken if your children attend Hempstalls together. This will be done during the day. If your child is in Cubs and does not usually attend at all on a Friday, or the Friday morning session, please bring them to school at 12pm to be photographed. You should take them to the Cubs entrance, where they will be met by a member of Staff.

Mr Harley will be holding a Maths Workshop for Parents/Carers on Tuesday 13th November. There will be two sessions; 9am & 5pm. Please return your slip to school.

Admissions to Cubs, Nursery and Reception

Cubs: From January 2019, we will be having a new intake for Cubs. If you know anybody that is interested in a Think 2 place, please get an application form from the school office.

Reception 2019: Reception Admission Applications are now available online. We have an Open Evening for prospective parents that do not currently attend Hempstalls, on Tuesday 13th November at 9:15am. Please pass this information to Friends/Family.

Father Michael's Friendship Assembly

Before Half Term, we were visited by Father Michael from St Michael's Church. He presented a fantastic assembly, all about Friendship. As seen in the picture, Father Michael portrayed the most important attributes of friendship, through vegetables.
