CSSP FOOTBALL LEAGUE – HOLY CROSS HIGH SCHOOL

We have been playing in a football tournament on a Thursday afternoon at Holy Cross. On week one, we played Sacred Heart; on week two we played Coppull Primary and St. James' and on week three we had three matches against Highfield, Euxton C of E and Lancaster Lane. We were narrowly beaten in three of our matches, including one in which the ball went in off the post in the very last seconds of the match. We were beaten 4-0 by Euxton after requiring a substitution, which caused us to lose our rhythm. Up to that point we had played really well in defending against a very good team. We won one match 1-0 against Highfield. Our squad has been made up of ten players: Tyler, Jack, Damien, Jacob, Ellie, Cori, Kacper, Jack, Dylan & Macie. Player of the Tournament: It has been very difficult to decide an individual player over six matches, because everyone showed moments of brilliance. However, the award goes jointly to Jack B and Jacob E, who both starred in all our matches. They were the engine that kept the team going.
