Spellings

This weeks spellings are below. Please complete the LOOK SAY COVER WRITE sheet to help you practise these. The spellings will be tested in class next Friday.

Reading

Reading every night will really benefit the children. Please fill in the yellow reading records, hand them in every morning and change your book when you have finished. ALSO - children have been allocated books for this half term on 'Bug Club' - please can these all be read this half term.

Sum Dog

Children have had their Sum Dog accounts stuck into their reading records. This is a fabulous maths resource and the children who access it will benefit greatly. Please log on as much as you can.

Homework

With the 100 year anniversary of the end of WWI on Sunday, it is a particularly poignant Remembrance Sunday. This week I would like the children to find out about somebody in their family who has fought in a war so that we can share some of their stories next week. Please use the space below to create a little fact file about your family member - you can use this space in any way you like.
