The Jungle Book - a retelling

It was only 7:00, the bright sun was going down Father Wolf went out hunting for food to eat with his family. Mother Wolf looked after the cubs when Father Wolf went hunting he came back and Shere Khan followed him home Father Wolf told him to come in there is some delicious food in our delightful cave. "I'm very hungry."

Mother Wolf said, "This is a bad idea." Said Mother Wolf. "Shall I tell him how happy you are?" Father Wolf thinks Shere Khan is stupid because he's hunting men and making noises. The animals tell each other that man is very weak, poor animals. And it is not fair to touch him they also say it is true.
