This Week

Inkpen and Rosen have been finding out about 2D shapes by exploring their properties and giving them names. They have been using the colours they mixed last week to do some leaf printing.

Sharratt and Donaldson have been learning about the features of churches and have made some stained glass window.

Potter and Ahlberg had a wonderful trip to Cave Castle where they explored turrets and castellations in preparation for their new topic. They have also been locating places on a World Map.

Murphy and Dahl have been investigating the properties of rocks and comparing and contrasting them.

Morpurgo and Kinney have been looking at the different layers of the oceans and finding out what types of creatures live in different parts. They have also been locating and naming the seas and oceans of the world.

Herge and Walliams have continued to read the class novel Kensuke's Kingdom and begun to write a journal or ship's log as if they were the character Michael. They have been developing their map skills by exploring contour lines.

Shakespeare and Rowling have been watching a video of life as a soldier to stimulate their writing ideas. They have then written a recount as if they were an American soldier of World War II.

Have a great weekend.

The Hive Out of School Club

This week our activities have linked to the Year 1 topic 'Paws, Claws and Whiskers'. We have created social media profiles for our pets and mythical creatures. We have used a pictogram to measure which pet was the most popular. We explored a variety of art mediums to create animal portraits and looked at maps and plans of zoos and animal parks from around the world to help inspire us to design our own.

We have played choice games as part of anti-bullying week which celebrates how we are all unique and special and designed our own anti-bullying superheroes.

At French club we looked at animal names and started planning some exciting Christmas celebrations.

Miss Stanley

View from the Classroom Floor

Did you know that this week is anti-bullying week? We all had to wear odd socks on Monday to think about how people can all be different. It made no difference to us as we seem to wear odd socks every day!!!

Today everything seems to have gone all dotty as we raise money for Children in Need.

We also brought in some small change to create a face of Pudsey Bear.

It was a fun day and was really good to think about children who are not as lucky as we are.

We hope you all watch the Children in Need special on the television tonight and do what you can to help.

Have a great weekend.

Olivia and Katie.

Education News

The Government released more information about the statutory Times Table Tests that all Year 4 children will have to complete in 2020. There will be a concentration of questions from the 6,7,8,9 and 12 times tables.

Times Tables Rock Stars is an excellent way for children to learn their tables. If you don't know your child's log in details please ask their class teacher.

Lunch Time Arrangements

Your child may have told you that on Thursday we had all the children in the canteen to eat their lunch. This is true.

We are looking to see if this is a practical option which would then allow us to use the hall for other activities such as sporting clubs and inter-house competitions both academic and sporting.

We know for the feedback from Mrs Allen and Miss Inglis' PE Questionnaire that a greater range of clubs and a chance to practise for competitions is something important to you.

We may continue to trial it over the next week or so to make sure it work before making a final decision. Mrs Woodcock will be speaking to the school council to get the children's views and also to get them to think of ideas for using the hall.

I would like Mr May to know...
