Please remember in your prayers:

Please remember especially Fr Bob's mum who is very poorly at the moment and all family and friends who are ill at the moment.

If you have anyone you would like us to pray for, please let us know either by phone or email and we will add them to our prayer list

This week in school:

Forthcoming Choir Engagements:

As we move towards December, there are quite a few engagements for the choir. Parents, please note the dates on the calendar!

Just a reminder that choir uniform is short sleeved white formal collared shirts, grey skirts/trousers, white knee socks/grey socks for boys and black shoes. Children will need choir uniform for the Blind Society concert on 30th November and the concert at the Masonic Hall on Sunday 2nd December.

We have tickets available for the concert at the Masonic Hall– these are priced at £3 and include light refreshments. A letter will be coming home today with more details and reply slip to be returned to school asap.

Tomorrow afternoon, we are welcoming Joe Davies back to do another workshop with the choir. We had a great fun afternoon last time so are really looking forward to this.

Inter-schools Multi-skills afternoon: On Wednesday, Year 2 will be going along to the Sports Hall for an inter-schools fun activity session with other Year 2 groups from different schools.

Autism Workshop: On Friday, Year 6 is going to have a workshop with Jemma Swales to learn all about Autism. This session has been funded by the Shine for Autism group and is being offered to all the local schools. We are really grateful to the group for this and I'm sure Year 6 will learn a lot from Jemma.

Next week in school:

Cyclewise: Next week, we have the Cyclewise team in school to run the Cycling training with children from Year 5 and 6. If your child is due to take part in this, please check and ensure that their bike is in good working order as they will not be able to do the training if there are any issues with the bike.

WW2 Workshop: On Thursday, Year 4 will be having a WW2 workshop with Charlie Lupton. These workshops are always great fun and the children learn such a lot – they are always something to look forward to!

Lest We Forget: This week, MADs will be performing their Remembrance show at Millom School from Wednesday to Friday. A huge number of our pupils and several staff are involved in this show and tickets are available from Spoilt for Choice. The show is a mixture of comedy as well as a few tear jerking moments, and ends with Land of hope and glory and lots of flag waving so please come along and join in the fun! Tissues and Union Jacks recommended!

Have a great week everyone!
