Fighting for Justice and Peace...

Diane Parton, our lay reader from Sibbertoft and long-time friend of the school, delivers a collective worship to the children on one Wednesday morning every month. Her stories are always engaging and lively, often involving the children and all manner of props and costumes to help bring the Bible alive in a memorable way.

This week, Mrs Parton was talking about St Paul's letters, and how he taught Christians what they should do to fight for what they know to be right. Hannah in year 6 was dressed up in some unusual armour to illustrate the point!

Remembrance

Our other collective worships this week have focused on remembrance, to prepare for Armistice Day on Sunday. In addition, Wagtails have painted a poppy stone for every Welford soldier who died in the First and Second World Wars (34 in all) then hid them round the village on their welly walk this week. Most of them have been found and placed on the War Memorial, but keep your eyes open in case there are any still hiding!

Children in Need

We will be supporting Pudsey this year with a spotty themed non-uniform day on Friday 16th November, in exchange for a donation to Children in Need.

Reading idea of the week:

Why not turn off the TV one evening this week and encourage all the members of your family to spend some quality reading time.

Don't forget to check our website regularly at www.wsses.com. New content is added regularly, and you can find diary dates, information about uniform, snack, the Cool Milk scheme, school dinners and pupil premium, as well as resources, news and photos on the class pages.
