

Who am I?

My name is Hilary Gornall and I work as the Pastoral Manager here in school.

You will find me in the school playground before school and after school most days.

I am based in “The Qube” (behind the staff car park), so please call in on a Friday afternoon 1.30-3.30 for a coffee and to say hello.

Contact me by:

Email: gornalh@eastburn.bradford.sch.uk

Parents’ post box: Situated outside the school office.

Or drop into “The Qube” every Friday 1.30-3.30pm

What does the Pastoral manager offer?

- Friendly (non – judgemental) one to one support, listening to you and giving confidential advice and guidance.
- Gives you the chance to meet with other parents/carers. Make new friends.
- Provides information about relevant services in our local area.
- Runs “Family Links” nurture courses with crèche provision.
- Puts you in touch with support groups.
- Offers access to the Early Help process (getting together with outside agencies to offer help and support for families).
