Many of you will be aware, if you have seen the Bolton News, that Mrs Bowmans class of last year is the Bolton News category winners for 2018. It has be to be said that the award has been given for work done by Mrs Bowman in a number of classes. Everyone I have spoken to has said how much they feel Mrs Bowman deserves this award, she collected it on Monday, and further pictures will be in Fridays Bolton News.

Our Advent services start today in Reception, family members are welcome to join us in the hall for refreshments afterwards. All services will start at 9:10am.

Our Year 5 swimming team did very well at the Bolton Gala, the girls finishing 2nd and boys 3rd of the 15 schools participating, well done to all who swam.

Some Year 5 children attended a maths reasoning event at Castlebrook last Monday, and the Bikeability course for this class came to an end on Friday.

The book fair will be with us this week. It will be open from 8:30-8:45am & 3:15-3:45pm each day, and also during some of our class Advent Services, (please see below for all dates). Parents/Grandparents/Carers are welcome to come into school to browse, and purchase a wide range of books. The school receives commission on all purchases, which we then use to buy more reading books for our class libraries. Scholastic do have a facility for parents to pay with a debit/credit card, however to use this facility you will also need your mobile phone, alternatively you will still be able to pay with cash/cheques.

As part of the school gaining the PE Gold Award we have a few free tickets for Saturdays match between Bolton and Wigan. If anyone would like to have them please email the school and we will give them out on a first come first served basis. We will give them as a pair for children and adults.

Once again we will be making our class Christmas hampers. We are asking each child to bring in an item in their class colour to go into the hamper, e.g. if their class colour is purple they could bring some Cadbury's Chocolate. Items need to be in school no later than 5th December. Class Colours are as follows:- Reception - Purple, Year 1 - Blue, Year 2 - Red, Year 3 - Green, Year 4-White/Silver, Year 5 - Pink, & Year 6 - Yellow/Gold
