School Council: #togetherweareamazing

On Friday 16th November, our School Council had the opportunity to visit the Children's Centre at Brian Jackson House, to take part in a Suffragette-themed workshop. The children learned about Suffragettes and Suffragists, furthering their understanding of Democracy. At the end of the afternoon, they made a stop-motion animation to spread a positive message.

Pupil of the Week:

The Pupil of the Week is Sophie in Year 5. Sophie has impressed her teachers this term with her mature attitude and the determination she shows towards improving her work. Well done, Sophie!

Please send donations of goods for the variety of tombola stalls. Baked goods should be sent no earlier than Thursday 6th December.

Raffle Tickets:

You will not want to miss out on the opportunity to take part in our festive raffle. It really is a show stopper!

Your child will bring a book of five raffle tickets home today. You can purchase the tickets for yourself, your family or sell them to friends. There really are some fabulous prizes up for grabs, including: A Christmas hamper, an Amazon Fire HD10, Afternoon Tea for Two at Hinchcliffe Farm Shop, shop vouchers, music tuition vouchers, a coffee hamper and much, much, more.

If you need more tickets, just let us know. Alternatively, if you do not want the tickets, please return them to school as soon as possible so that we can sell them.
