SCHOOL NEWS

This weekend is the beginning of advent and so our Christmas preparations and celebrations get started.

We will put our Christmas postbox out on Monday, ready for a daily Christmas card delivery. Remind your child to label the envelopes with first and surnames as well as classes.

One of the challenges for homework is to make a Christmas tree decoration. Our tree should be arriving soon. All decorations need to be in school by next Friday 7th December.

On the 12th December the whole school will be travelling to Shrewsbury to watch this year's pantomime at Theatre Severn (within the school day). This is provided completely free of charge, a Christmas treat for pupils and staff. Will Mr Halstead be called on stage this year?

Further details about our Christmas play and the Christmas Church service will be announced early next week.

This year our Christmas lunch for pupils will be served up on 19th December.

Please don't forget the Christmas Fair at Dorrington Village Hall this Sunday from 11am to 2pm.

This week our Sharing Assembly Focus was:

School council updates

The music we have been listening to was:

Somebody to Love
Queen

THANK YOU!

Thank you for your Christmas Hamper contributions - don't forget to come to the Christmas Fayre on Sunday between 11am and 2pm to try and win one!

POPPY APPEAL

Many thanks for your Donations. We collected £17.47 towards the appeal this year.
