Mrs Hopkins

Mrs Mason

Mr De'Ath

This half-term's topics are:

The Ancient Greeks

In mathematics I will be focusing on:

-applying my knowledge, skills and understanding within problem solving and investigative contexts

In English I will be

-consolidating the use of fabulous vocabulary, a wide variety of simple and complex sentences and a range of punctuation
-writing my own Greek myth
-creating an information text about Ancient Greece

In my topic I will be learning about

What was everyday life like in ancient Greece?

Who did the ancient Greeks worship and why?

What did they leave behind?

You can help me by

-making sure I have suitable P.E. kit in school (indoor and outdoor) every day

-making sure I have a suitable pair of indoor shoes

-ensuring homework is completed and returned as requested

-helping me to create costumes for the leavers' concert—details to follow

In personal and social education we are thinking about

The risks associated with using different drugs

Ways to manage risk in situations involving drug use
