Headteacher: Miss S Reed

Thursday, 20th December 2018

Dear Parents & Carers,

Letter from Chair of Governors regarding the Retirement of Miss Reed

I am writing to inform you of a significant change for our school next year. Miss Reed, our Headteacher, will be retiring at Easter 2019. She has worked in Ryhope Infant School over 27 years and will be greatly missed by us all.

The Governing Body has moved very quickly to advertise for and to appoint a new Headteacher. Mrs T Allen, a current Headteacher at a First School in Northumberland, was the successful candidate at interview. She impressed the panel with her professionalism and understanding of the ethos and direction that the Governors feel will secure the future of Ryhope Infant School Academy. She will begin in post after the Easter holidays. I look forward to welcoming Mrs Allen into our school family and I am sure that she will deliver the best opportunities and experiences for our children.

May I wish you all a happy and peaceful Christmas and the best of health and good fortune for 2019.

Yours faithfully

Mrs S Brown
Chair of Governors
