

HILLINGDON

LONDON

Dear young people,

Want your voice to be heard and help make changes in Hillingdon? Are you aged 10 and over? Do you have an additional need, special educational need or disability?

If so we want to hear from you. We want to know:

- What is important to you and other young people?
- What will keep you and others interested in work the Local Authority are doing?
- What are the best ways to communicate with young people?
- Have you heard of / seen / used any of the following websites? (online Local Offer / Connect to Support / Young Hillingdon)
- What features do you like / dislike on either of the above?

Come along to the meeting below and tell us what you think;

Thursday 10th January 2019

5:00pm until 7:30pm

Committee Room 3 at the Civic Centre, High Street, Uxbridge, UB8 1UW

You can come alone, come with a friend or bring someone to support you. The event is being hosted by the Local Authority, young people and adults from a national organisation called KIDS <https://www.kids.org.uk/>

On the afternoon of the 11th January, your ideas and views will be shared with policy makers in Hillingdon and you are welcome to stay.
