Christmas Mass

I love going to church
On Christmas Night
Snow crunching under my feet
Everywhere painted white.

As I step into our Church
I am greeted by ‘hello’
And a warm friendly smile
From a lady I don’t know.

I find a seat
And go down on one knee
I ask our God
To look after my family

I think of my loved ones
Who have passed by
As a small bell rings
I brush a tear from my eye.

Fr Ian comes into church
The choir strike up a tune
Such a beautiful sound like birds singing in June.

It’s a beautiful Mass
Said with such style and grace
Fr Ian gives a blessing
A smile lights up his face

As I leave the church
Strangers still say hello
I’m filled with a warmth
As I go out into the snow

I love ‘St Margaret Mary’s’
It fills me with cheer
‘Merry Christmas to all
And a Happy New Year’.
