

History

- Studies of famous palaeontologists
- Asking enquiry questions
- Using primary and secondary sources
- The evolution of living things through time.
- The ancient Mayan civilization

Reading

We will be learning and practising a wide range of skills through texts such as:

- Non-chronological reports on fossils.
 - The Island at the end of everything by Kiran Millwood Hargrave.
- Various styles of poetry.
- Biographies of famous palaeontologists.

Writing

- Based on the book 'The Island at the End of Everything' by K.M Hargrave:
- Character and setting descriptions.
- Formal and informal letter writing.
- Poetry linked to the natural world
- Biographies about famous palaeontologists.

Art

- Building intricate patterns
- Using the image of a butterfly to print and make patterns.
- Silkscreen painting

P.E

- Dance

Year 6 Creative Curriculum 'Evolution' Spring Term

PSHE

- Dreams and goals.
- How these change over time.

Spelling & Grammar

- Use of Colons/semi-colons
- expanded noun phrase
- parenthesis
- formal vs informal speech
- Passive and Active voice.
- Antonyms and synonyms
- Repetition for effect.

FAB

- Sacred texts
- Resurrection

Science

- Evolution
- Electrical circuits
- Inheritance and ancestry
- How animals adapt to their environments.
- Famous theories and discoveries of Charles Darwin, Mary Anning and Alfred Russel Wallace.
- Fossils and what they tell us about the past.

