

Get Caught Reading!

As many of you will be aware, the week beginning 28th January is our annual Book Week. During this week, we will be running a 'Get Caught Reading!' competition (for staff and children!) to help further promote our love of reading.

The task is to be photographed reading in as interesting a place as possible! The possibilities are endless but some examples of this are below and many more can be found if you search the internet.

Please either send in or email entries to the school office by Monday 28th January - office@brooksward.org.uk

The winners will receive vouchers for our Book Fair and entries will be displayed in the school library!

Happy Snapping!

Thank you for your continued support,

Brooksward School Council
