

Nick Drew – Parent Governor

As a parent and a secondary school teacher in a neighbouring borough, I am passionate about education and ensuring that each child is given the opportunity to reach their full potential. I have two children who have progressed well at Marlborough and enjoyed all of the opportunities that the school provides. I have previously served as a staff governor at my current school which has given me a whole school perspective of what is required to achieve and maintain the very highest standards.