

FAIRFIELD WEEKLY NEWS

Wednesday 16th January 2019

Name of child _____

With great sadness for us but happiness for him, I have to announce that our vicar, The Reverend Gordon Joyce is retiring this month.

Gordon's assemblies are the highlight of each month and have been praised as outstanding by Ofsted and he has made St John's Church a hugely welcoming place for our school.

The KS1 nativity there each year is a joy and it is the church that we turned to when tragedy struck our school a few years ago. Gordon also runs a church club every Monday which is very popular.

We will keep our links with the church through Mrs Frain, Mrs Cooper and our Chair of Governors, David Miller but we bid Gordon a big goodbye in our assembly on Friday 25th January at 9.15am.

We will be buying Gordon a leaving token on behalf of the school but if parents wish to get a present (he likes chocolate!!) it would be lovely. Just let the office know and please come to the assembly to say goodbye.

School Dinners - Census Day Thursday 17/1/19

All children in Reception, Y1 and Y2 are being given a school dinner tomorrow free of charge. See last week's newsletter for details.

Help with Behaviour

A reminder there will be two very interesting sessions on helping with children's behaviour at home and school next Thursday and the Thursday after. Parents are invited. Please complete the slip to attend the sessions.
