

As Historians we might:

- Research about one of the villages / towns in the area and finding out when it was developed and interesting facts in history about it.
- * Make a timeline of the events in History about one of the villages /towns in our area.*

As Scientists we might:

- Make a leaflet about animals that are found in our local area including the habitats they live in.

As Musicians we might:

- Listen to and find music that makes us think of creatures and how they move.
- Find a song about our local area.

As Writers we might:

- Write a report about a village/town found in the local area (Pickering, Kirkbymoorside, Sinnington, Hawnby).
- Create a leaflet about one of the villages/towns mentioned.
- Create a poster advertising one of the villages/towns mentioned.

As Designers we might:

- Create a 3D version of a man-made feature in one of the villages/towns.
- Create a 3D version of a physical features in one of the villages/ towns.*

Location, Location, Location.

Choose something from this list or be creative with your own ideas about our Local area. Looking at the towns around Helmsley.

As Mathematicians we might:

- Find the distances between some of the villages/ towns.
- Compare the size of the populations using $<$, $>$ or $=$.

As ICT technicians we might:

- Create a poster advertising one of our local villages/ towns.
- * make a map using 2Draw programme or one from Purple mash of Helmsley*

Due in by: Monday 18th February

As Athletes we might:

- Research famous athletes that may have come from our Local Area.
- Find out if there is a sport that is traditional in our area and make a little poster about what it is and how to play it.

As Geographers we might:

- Research some of the physical features around Helmsley and the surrounding areas.
- Research the man-made features found around Helmsley and the surrounding areas.
- Draw a map of one of the village/ towns in the local area.

As Readers we might:

- Read stories by Dick King-Smith related to the animals that might be found in our area.
- Find Non-Fiction books that related to the Geography of the areas around us.

As Artists we might:

- Research the work of David Hockney particularly his landscapes in Yorkshire.
- Paint a landscape of around our local villages/towns and countryside in the style of David Hockney.