Spring Term

Toast and Snacks - Toast can only be ordered at the start of the school day. If your child would like to purchase toast then they will need to order it from the class monitor during registration at a cost of 25p. Alternatively they can bring in a healthy snack from home e.g fruit or cereal bar

Homework

Homework will be sent out on Fridays. Please return this on the following Wednesday. Your child should be bring home maths, English, comprehension and spellings every week.

A Roman Power project has been sent out and this will last the whole term. We have asked for 4 activities to be completed and will share them with the class before displaying them in our Y4 area.

Reading

Please encourage your child to read his or her free choice book at home and sign the red reading record to show us that this is taking place.

MATHLETICS and SPELLODROME

Children are encouraged to use Mathletics regularly and it is given as homework each fortnight. Please speak to a member of staff if you are unable to access Mathletics or Spellodrome at home.
