

The Great Fire of London started in a bakery on Pudding Lane. Have a go at baking something you could sell in a bakery. Take a picture of the final product to show to the class or to add to FreeFlow.

Write a list of instructions on how to make bread.

Thinking about your senses write a poem about the Great Fire of London.

Design a new bakery for Thomas Farriner.

Create a model of a 1666 house.

Samuel Pepys kept a diary of events during The Great Fire of London. Keep your own diary for a weekend and write about all the things you do.

Learning at Home

Here are some ideas for learning at home linked to our topic -
FIRE!

Don't forget to add photographs to FreeFlow.

Design your own dragon. Think about:

- what your dragon will look like
- what your dragon will eat
- what special powers your dragon has
- where your dragon lives

Make a fire engine using recycled materials.

Write a recount of our visit to the Fire Station.

Design an information poster to promote fire safety.

Research Chinese New Year—Find out which animal is being celebrated this year and make a poster about that animal.

Make a dragon using recycled materials .

