About Ralph breaks the internet

Six years after the events of "Wreck-It Ralph," Ralph and Vanellope, now friends, discover a wi-fi router in their arcade, leading them into a new adventure.

This is a PG film, which means that the film is for general viewing, but that some scenes may be unsuitable for young children. Parents are advised to consider whether the content may upset younger, or more sensitive, children

More information about the film can be found by searching online to help you decide on the suitability of this for your child.

Please return the completed slip with payment to the school office by Thursday 31st January.
