

Downs Infant School Newsletter

Week ending 25th January 2019

Reception

Reception have started a new topic on transport and vehicles. A road system has grown up all over the ocean and the Reception children have been driving a variety of vehicles and making their own street furniture. They have been labelling diagrams of vehicles, paying close attention to the different features and functions of vehicles.

Year 1

Year 1 children have been designing their own dinosaurs, describing what they look like, their habitat and diet, as well as adding some special fun facts. They have used this information to make their own dinosaur books.

They have also learned the terms carnivore, herbivore and omnivore. Some of them have been sorting their dinosaurs into Venn diagrams!

Year 2

Year 2 had a wonderful trip to the Pavilion and since then it has been all about dragons: dragon tiles, dragon stories, dragon dancing...

In maths they have been developing their understanding of multiplication and division.

They have explored both division as sharing and as grouping and looking for links with their times tables.

Road Safety

We had a visit from the Road Safety Magic Show last week. All year groups were treated to an amazing and informative session all about keeping safe on the roads. Please support us in this important project by ensuring you practice safe road use including parking around the school.

Health and Safety

At home time, some children are climbing over the fence into the bushes on the bottom playground. They are not allowed to do this as we cannot guarantee this area is safe. Please don't be offended if school staff intervene when they see something that worries them, they are fulfilling their health and safety duties as school employees.

We have TWO weeks of brilliance to celebrate this week...
