Background: I have a BA, PGCE and post graduate qualifications in Special Education and Leadership Management
Relevant experience As Head Teacher at Castle Wood, an outstanding broad spectrum primary special school, I am passionate about providing high quality education, improving outcomes for pupils with SEND in all settings and providing training to colleagues across settings. I have taught in mainstream and specialist schools and that has enabled me to gain in-depth knowledge and invaluable insight regarding curriculum and assessment development for pupils with a wide range of SEND. I have lead outreach across the LA and worked with a range of professionals and agencies. Having varying roles has enabled me to develop practice and pedagogy in inclusive approaches and curriculum development. I deliver SEND training for the PGCE and School Direct programmes for the University of Warwick I am also a Pupil Premium and SEND Reviewer. I am actively involved in system leadership and represent the Special Schools at Network Leads.
All about me I am married with two grown up children, one of whom works in Health and the other works in IT
