

I am Warrior!

Here is a list of addition (non-compulsory) activities you may wish to complete with your child at home to enhance their learning about our topic 'I am Warrior'.

- Watch the closing credits of your favourite British TV programme. Can you find the Roman numerals at the end? In what year was the programme made?
- Research Roman life using books from your local library. Which were the most useful? Recommend the best one to your classmates.
- Find out if there are any Roman forts or settlements near where you live. Try to visit one with your family. Take lots of photographs of what you see.
- Look at holiday brochures and online information to find out about modern day Rome as a tourist destination. Which tourist attractions would you like to visit?
- Try to find a map of Roman Britain. Find out about some of the names of towns and cities. What are their modern names?
- Read a book or watch a film on a Roman theme. Write a review to let your classmates know what you thought about it.
- Write a diary entry as if you are a Roman soldier, a slave in a Roman villa or a Celtic child. What is your typical day like?
- Make a model of a Roman villa using junk materials such as cereal boxes, coloured paper, tin foil and cardboard tubes.
- Make a drawing of a Roman god or goddess. Write a fact file of information.
- Create a Celtic costume. Tartan pyjama bottoms and blankets may come in handy. You could borrow a brooch to secure your cloak or some Celt-inspired jewellery.
