

Dear Diary

Zooming along Gatwick airport, I gazed up and saw ~~lots~~ lots of ~~insects~~ ^{planes} ~~insects~~ fill the sky & I bit my lips as I knew I'd be ~~one~~ on one. When I boarded the plane pilot Mrs Sutton Smith and did a security check. ~~Security~~ Luckily all was fine. Our first destination was Scotland I stared around and looked out on the amazing Scottish Highlands that seemed to go on forever. As we constantly stared in excitement we chomped on Scottish short bread.

In Wales we visited Castle Arcade and discovered the walls were yellow! That surprised me. I loved visiting all the land marks but I have to admit my ~~fav~~ favourite was Northern Ireland. I held on tight to pygmy marmoset ~~as~~ (the toy I bring that made from a sock) as we stood and looked out over ~~the~~ the sea I felt as if it was too good to be true I spread my arms and ran with the wind along side me stood the mighty Giants Causeway. Now I felt ~~I~~ I was really ~~flying~~ flying & that ends my story of flying of a truly amazing flight around the UK.

Boarding the plane

Flying over Brighton

Flying over the Scottish Highlands

