Dear Parents,

During the Autumn term I wrote to invite you to join in with our “ Never Stop Reading” Campaign and received lots of fantastic photographs of parents reading with their children. These photographs have been put on display in the KS1 library and have been shared during our whole school assembly.

The children have now been invited to take part in the next part of this campaign by taking a photograph of them reading in the most unusual place they can think of. All you need to do is help your child send this photograph to squirrel@aecps.org with a short explanation of where they are, what they are reading and why they enjoy it. All photographs will be added to a display board in school and shared with the children in assembly aiming to remind children of the importance of reading for enjoyment.

As an additional incentive, the three best photos will receive a voucher for money off our next book sale.

We look forward to seeing the children’s ideas!

Yours Sincerely,

Miss Platt
